presents

THE GENERATIONS FILMMAKER WORKSHOP 2010

What is it?

A FREE twelve-week intergenerational workshop for beginning filmmakers. You will work with other Bay Area LGBTQ Youth and Elders to write, script, cast, storyboard, shoot, and edit a collaborative short film that will screen at the 34th San Francisco International LGBT Film Festival June 17-27, 2010. Through hands-on exercises, you will learn how to make a movie from beginning to end – from using a digital video camera to directing actors to editing your footage. You will also get a stipend for your full participation.

Who is it for?

Bay Area Youth and Elders who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, questioning or queer and are interested in participating in an intergenerational collaboration. PLEASE NOTE: This is a beginning video production workshop. No prior video experience is necessary to participate. Young women and people of color are encouraged to apply.

When is it?

Workshops run February 27-May 16, 2010. Class is held on Saturdays from 1-4 pm and on a couple of additional Sundays from 10am - 6pm. There will be additional times required for editing and homework outside of class. You must be able to attend all classes to participate.

Class dates: 2/27, 3/6, 3/13, 3/20, 3/27, 4/3, 4/10, 4/17, 4/24, 5/1, 5/2, 5/8, 5/15, 5/16.

Where is it?

Workshops will take place at Ninth Street Independent Film Center, 145 Ninth Street #101, San Francisco, CA 94103 (between Mission & Howard). Near bus lines: 14 Mission, 26 Valencia, 19 Polk, 21 Hayes, F Market. BART: Civic Center.

What else do I get?

You will receive a stipend and a DVD copy of your movie for your full participation in the project. You will also receive a guest filmmaker pass to attend all screenings and events at the 34th San Francisco International LGBT Film Festival June 17-27, 2010, where your film will also be screened!

How can I apply?

Fill out the application completely and submit it by mail, email or in person by Monday, February 22, 2010. We will notify you by Wednesday, February 24, 2010.
